Mo Mydlo Speaker Bio

Mo Mydlo is a wife, mother of four (4), mimi, and follower of Jesus who resides in central Florida. Mo is a nationally published author, TV personality, speaker, and non-profit founder. Her book Overcoming Anxiety: Your Biblical Guide to Breaking Free from Fear and Worry was released by Charisma Media in October of 2015 and was also made into a 7-Day Bible study plan on the YouVersion Bible app with over 100,000 completions.

Her newest Bible study curriculum on the Book of Joshua titled "Unforsaken: A Walk with Joshua Into Your Promised Land" is now available for churches and women's groups to incorporate into their bible study programming to help women break free of sin and spiritual bondage. Hot off the press is her new book "Narrow Gate" which is full of short devotions and inspiration about everyday life.

In addition to writing and teaching, Mo directs the not-for-profit organization she founded called Unforsaken Women Corporation. The name of the ministry was birthed from the Scripture in Joshua 1:5 when the Lord says, "I will be with you; I will never leave you nor forsake you." Unforsaken Women's goal is to help women renew their minds in the Word of God while helping meet the physical needs of women and children. Partnership with support ministries allows Unforsaken Women to provide aid to single moms, widows, and impoverished children in Haiti. They partner with Priority One Worldwide to help Haiti as well as partner with Gospel for Asia to get evangelists on the ground in a much-needed area for the gospel to be shared. Locally, Unforsaken Women hosts a monthly, community-wide, interdenominational women's event where Mo always delivers a powerful message.

Since 2017 Mo has been featured in a series of 3-minute teaching sessions titled "Moments with Mo". These segments appear on the show Welcome Home with Barbara Beck that airs on The Good Life TV 45 network and are now available on the Unforsaken Women YouTube Channel.

Mo is a dynamic speaker and a practical teacher whose love of Jesus overflows into her passion to help others know they are also Unforsaken! To view all her resources, visit the Unforsaken Women website at: www.unforsakenwomen.com
